Crest

Using their own "Do-It-Yourself" kits, these three core editors combine to set new records in Crest production: James Neumeier, co-basketball editor; Mary Lou Cramer, introduction editor; and Wayne Hotz, co-basketball editor.

Smiles aren't hard to come by when Diane Potthoff and Scarlett Osting, co-editors of the senior section, realize their mission is accomplished.

Staff

Social Editor Carol Heitz makes a last-minute check of her "high-society" student file.

Two bright gleams of achievement are radiated by Janet Johnson and Haward Kill, co-editors of the underclass section.

"How's this for lay-out?" asks Nadine Van Schoyck, activities editor, of Dave Wiechart and Bob Wilcox, football section co-editors.

ACTIVITIES

Embued with the spirit of Retreat, Seniors Kenneth Wrasman, Dave Wiechart, Robert Gardan, and Robert Wilcox stop in for an informal chat with Retreat Master Father Cleo S. Schmenk.

Senior acolytes betray expressions of mixed emotions as they pose for their final get-together as servers. ROW 1: Paul Wiechart, Philip Bryan, the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Carl F. Reineck, pastor; the Rev. Thomas W. Kuhn, principal, Michael McKowen, Eugene Hickey, and William Van Pelt. ROW 2: Roger Lindeman, Robert Wilcox, Timothy Drewyore, Dennis Kill, Joseph Illig, James Neumeier, and Dennis Flanagan. ROW 3: Neil Grone, Richard Lauser, Thomas Klousing, Paul Smith, Karl Odenweller, James Fischer, and Howard Kill. ROW 4: James McCabe, Richard Hanser, Michael Wilson, Thomas Mueller, Ronald Wurst, and William Murray.

Introducing a new idea in the study of current events, Father Kuhn is shown reviewing film strips of world news in the senior girls' Civics-Sociology Class.

Members of the American History Class: Robert Mueller, Jeannine Wagner, and Valeta Wallenhorst inspect workbooks compiled by the class in commemoration of the Civil War during the observance of its Centennial Year.

James Lang presents his winning "Voice of Democracy" speech while Joan Pohlman, Dee Ann Westrich, and Gary Miller eagerly wait to deliver their entries in the contest.

Three Freedoms

Jean Miller and Lonna Grewe lead a group of freshman girls in a discussion of joy-in-prayer as outlined in "Hi-Time," a magazine used to correlate religious facts.

Members of the 1962 SHIELD staff are entertained by SJH's internationally famous sportswriter, Bill "Sterns" Brennan. Bill displays the issue that contains the Pulitzer-prize account of the famous "Miami-Erie Hackey Swindle" of late January. Watching in amusement are Diane Wanamaker, Joyce Welch, Jeanne Urbine, and Janet Vorst, (seated); Bonnie Stalkamp, Jane Reddington, Carol Flanagan, Dee Ann Westrich, Joyce Turnwald, Barbara Shenk, typist; Joyce Lindeman, Sue Smith, Mildred Gabel, Genie Ricker, Carolyn Burger, and Valeta Wallenhorst.

These Spanish students have found that a tape recorder can be a big help in language study. Gene Klaus, Patricia Pohlman, and Kathy Rode lead the class in diction exercises.

Languages

Mary Weisgerber and Bernard Will play a game of "Roman Pinochle" as Robert Williams drills David Weber and Lanna Grewe in the flash card technique during freshman Latin class.

American Literature experts from English III report on Negro Spirituals and Frontier Folk Songs for their classmates' listening pleasure. Bill Brennan (at desk) emcees the panel consisting of Ronald E. Koverman, Larry Williams: Marcia Hoersten, and Dennis Lause, record Jackey.

In keeping with the great cultural traditions of SJH, the band presents the classical "Three Little Pigs" during one of their terrific half-time shows.

Under the leadership of head majorette, Lois Hageman, the majorettes seem to be really concentrating on their routines, with the exception of Terrie Griffis who, evidently, would rather sleep.

Marching Band

Under the direction of Mr. Donald Bowersox, the dynamic Marching Band is shown during one of the formations sparking half-time entertainment.

Mr. Donald Bowersox, Chorus Director, addresses the student body before the concert, giving the background and origin of the music in the "Christmas Cantata."

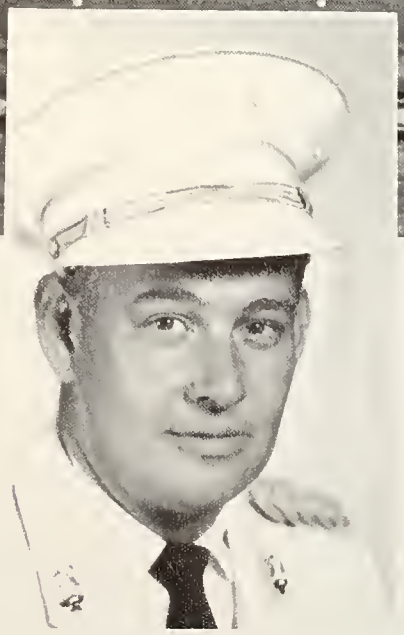
Christmas Cantata

Members of the Concert Choir pause as they take their positions on the stage. (What's with the mustache, Jeannie?)

Glarious strains of Christmas meladies fill the halls of old St. John's as Mr. Bawersax directs the Concert Choir during their Christmas program.

Playing "Liberace style" complete with candelabra, Susan Smith accompanies the Concert Choir at the "Christmas Cantata."

Concert Band



Mr. Donald Bowersox

SJH's "Mr. Musicman"

Director of Marching Band

Concert Choir Maestro

Director of Concert Band

Minstrel Show Organizer

Relieved after nights and nights of practice, the Concert Band radiates satisfaction at having been very well received at their annual performance. Members include: ROW ONE: Pamela Clark, Jane Reddington, Dennis Kill, Thomas Mueller, Thomas Klausing, and James Menke; ROW TWO: Helen Fischer, Susan Osting, Betty Burger, Robert Wegesin, Annette Van Oss, Penny Sever, Pamela Pattan, Mary Klausing, Norma Osting, Kathleen Schmersal, Philip Bryan, Sonnie Osting, Candace Pattan, and Sue Best; ROW THREE: Richard Dickrede, Jane Marsh, Joann Shumaker, Janet Scherger, Sandra Lause, Susan Brandehoff, Arlene Renner, Linda Kill, Doris Saum, Roger Hageman, Ann Wulfhorst, and David Weber; ROW FOUR: Karl Odenweller, JoAnn Hilvers, Jane Van Pelt, Anita Vogt, Sue Shumaker, Larry Grothouse, Robert Beckman, Barbara Bonifas, and Barbara Imber; ROW FIVE: Helga Best, Ruth Reinemeyer, Michael Backey, Donald Kemper, Ronald Goergens, and Frank Schimoeller.

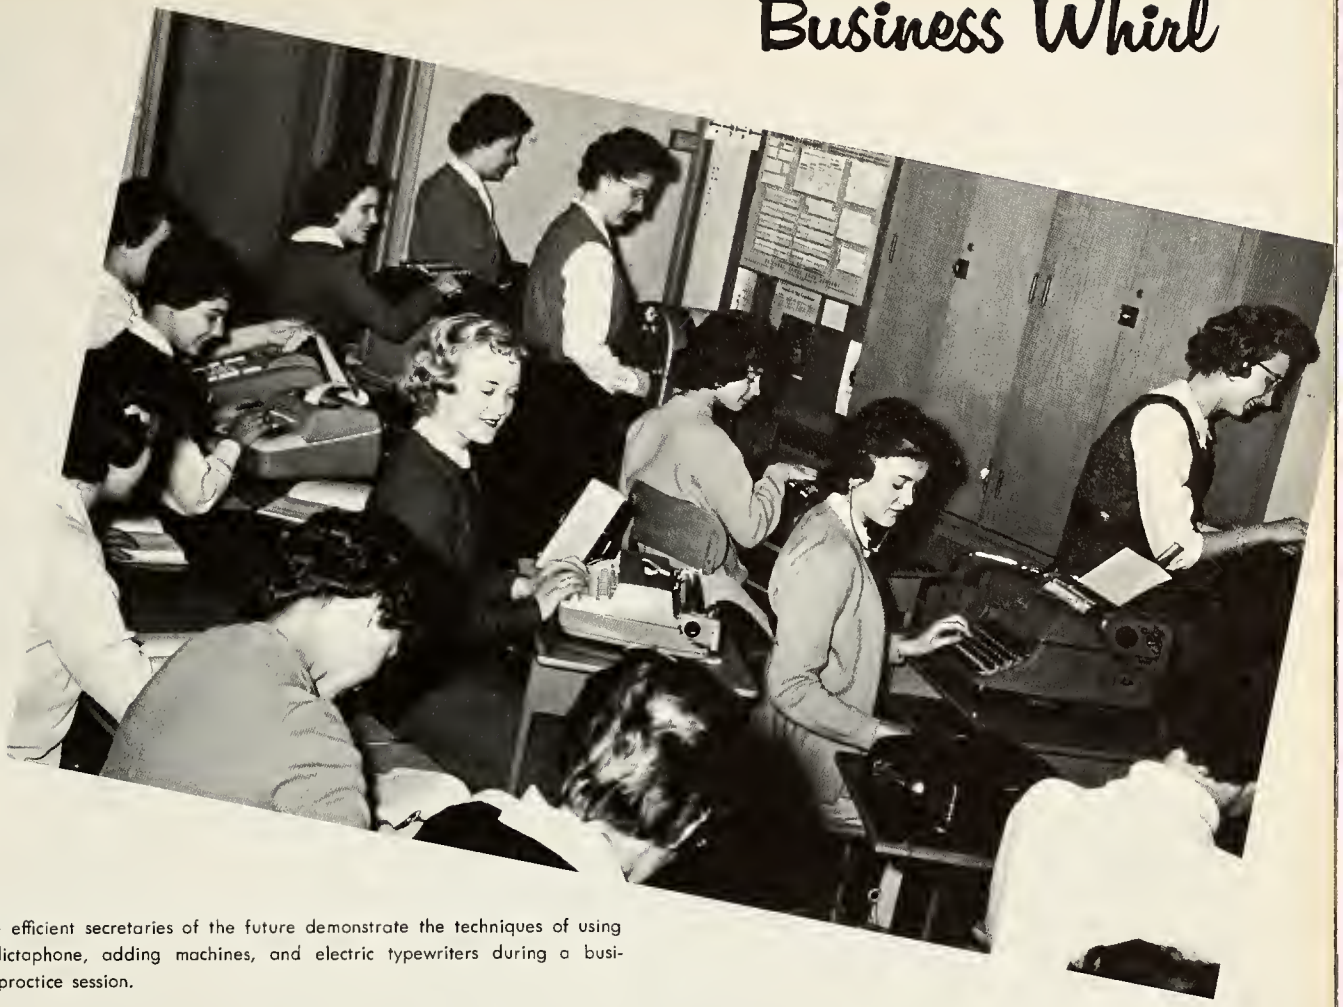
Demonstrating the necessary steady hand needed for mechanical drawing, Wayne Hotz, senior, strikes a rare concentrative pose.

Diana Coaley, James Siefker, Nancy Nagle, Gary Grubenhaff, and Richard Lauser, ancient history students, chart the Time Line of history through its development. The Time Line here displayed depicts the progressive phases of the Roman Empire.

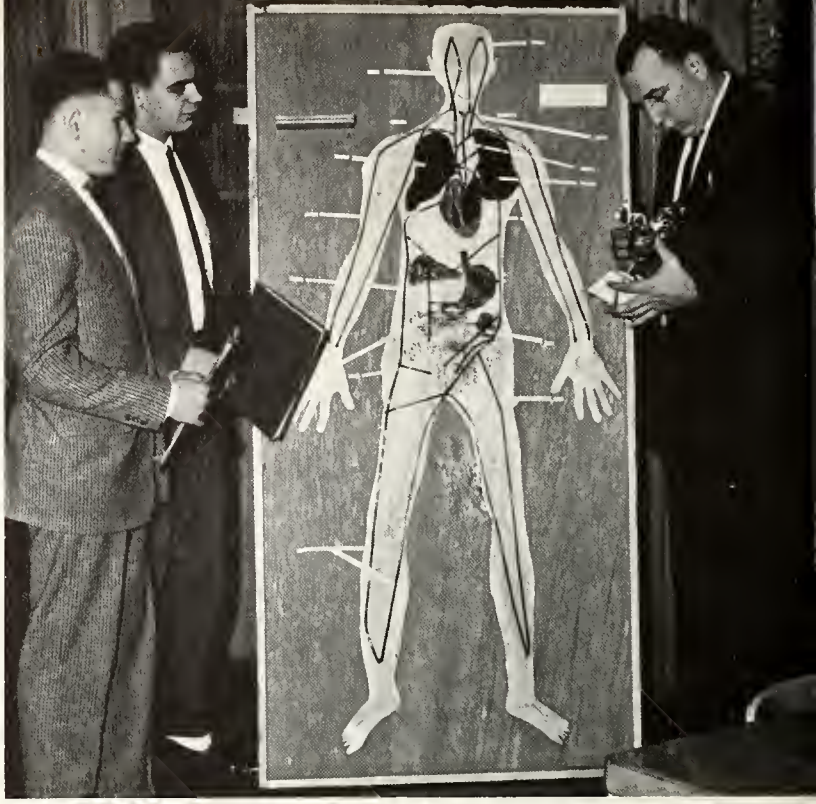
Business Whirl



These efficient secretaries of the future demonstrate the techniques of using the dictaphone, adding machines, and electric typewriters during a business practice session.

Practical physics students; Roger Pathast, Gerald Brickner, and John Osting demonstrate to the class a method of finding resistance experimentally by Ohm's Low.

Science

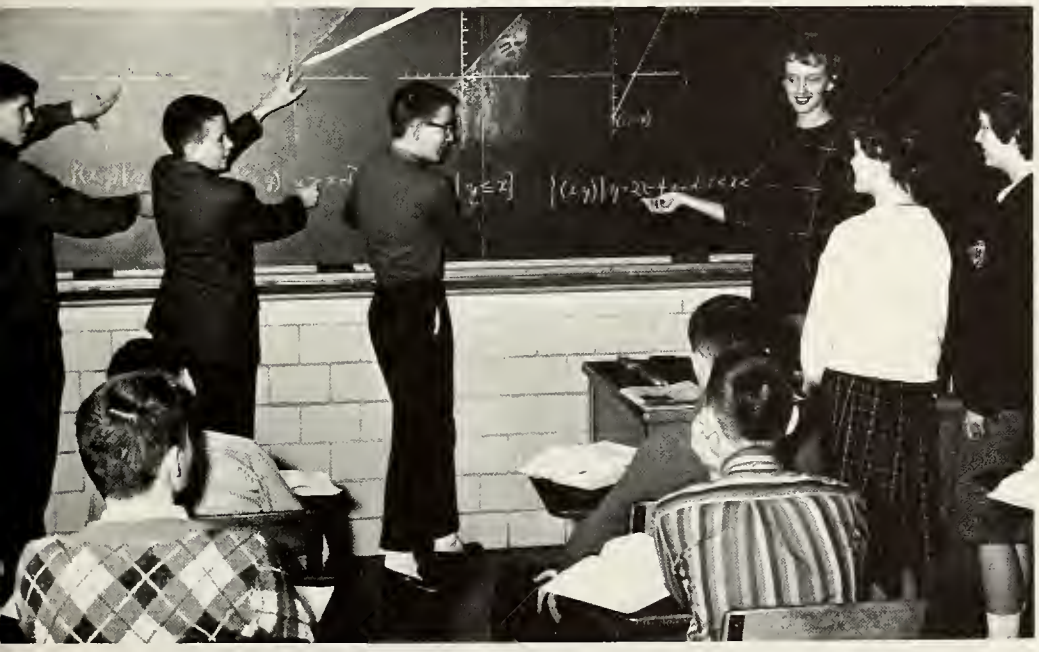


Robert Wegesin and Alan Lause pose with Mr. Robert Kurucz, head of the Biology Department, beside their model of the circulatory system which served as their first semester biology project.

Focus on Einsteins . . . Robert Hiett verifies a physics law of weights and balances, while Frank Schimaeller and Richard Hanser take down the results. Onlooker Carol Hietz looks as if she might be drinking a soda.

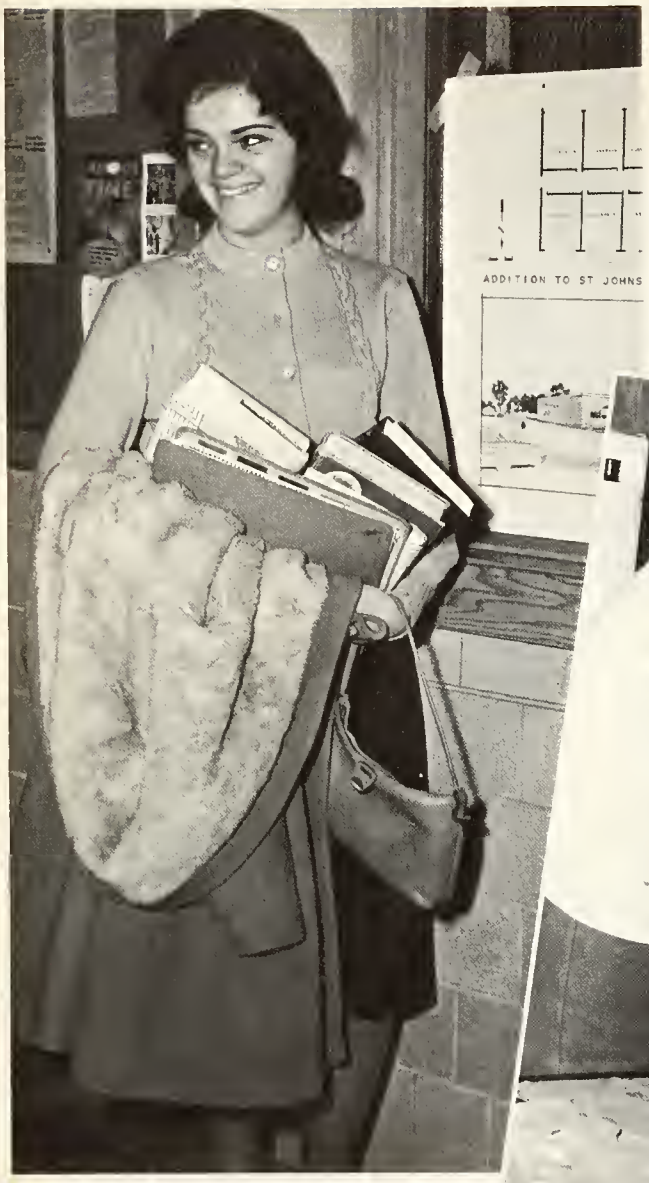
Amid rows of test tubes, acid bottles, and Bunsen burners, Janet Vorst and Joseph Imber stand, fascinated by the variety of equipment needed in a chemistry class.

Under the watchful eye of Mr. Lloyd Smith, William Shumaker, John Etzkorn, Tom Freund, Michael Schimmoller, Don Osting, James Gerdeman, Roger Horstman, and Roger Pathast, slave over income tax forms. ("Don't forget the money you made at Black Jack, boys.")



Graphing seems to come easy to these freshman Algebra students: Michael Kester, Dave Weber, Steve Rapier, Mary Weisgerber, Barbara Saum, and Ruth Reinemeyer as they smilingly exhibit another victory in the field of math.

Va-Ag boys trouble shooting the "screwed up" motor wonder "Who did it?": Kenneth Renner, John Hoffman, William Stant, Mr. Robert McBride, instructor, Gary Louth, Roger Lindeman, Tom Pohlman, Dennis Kehres, David Leffers, Ralph Hesseling, Robert Kramer, and Kenneth Wrasman.



Leslie Marton, latest edition to the junior class, has rocked SJH with her magnetic personality and lovable charm. A transfer student from Redondo Beach, California, Leslie finds school life at SJH most enjoyable.

Hardly time enough to stop and pose . . . Patricia Trentman and Helen Grathouse concentrate intently on laying out a pattern while Virginia Studenka and Marie Meyers put the finishing touches to a Home Arts project.

These homemakers of tomorrow discover that cooking isn't such drudgery after all. Edith Pohlman reads the instructions while Irene Pohlman and Carol Pothast carefully follow her directions.

SOCIAL

"Beauty and the Beasts?" Well, not exactly! Queen Nadine's charm is enhanced at the Homecoming Dance by the contrast of the handsome senior boys surrounding her: Jim Fischer, Mike McKowen, Paul Wiechart, Jim Neumeier, and Howard Kill.

Queen Nadine Van Schoyck escorted by Michael McKowen, president of the Student Council, reigns for a glorious evening over the Homecoming Festivities held in the SJH Gym, October 14. Attendants and their escorts: Dorothy Sever and Dennis Ditto; Judy Trentman, Dale Jastpille, Joyce Turnwald, Gene Klaus; Linda Rade, Howard Kill; James Neumeier; Diane Potthoff, James Fischer; Helen Hemfling, Roger Schlereth; Joan Pahlman, Paul Wiechart; Ann Wulforst and Robert Wegesin.

As one queen to another, Nadine pauses with Mike to pay tribute to the loveliest Queen of them all — the Queen of Heaven.

It's a happy moment for both mother and daughter as Nadine's joy spills over onto her mother, Mrs. Mary Van Schayck.

Despite the chilly evening, Nadine flashes a warm smile as she rides in high style to the stadium.

Co-captains Jim Neumeier and Tim Drewyare place the cherished crown upon a tearful, but radiant Queen.

"Say it with flowers," says Mike as he places the mums in Nadine's arms.

The royal court in all its glory and beauty presides over the Homecoming Game.

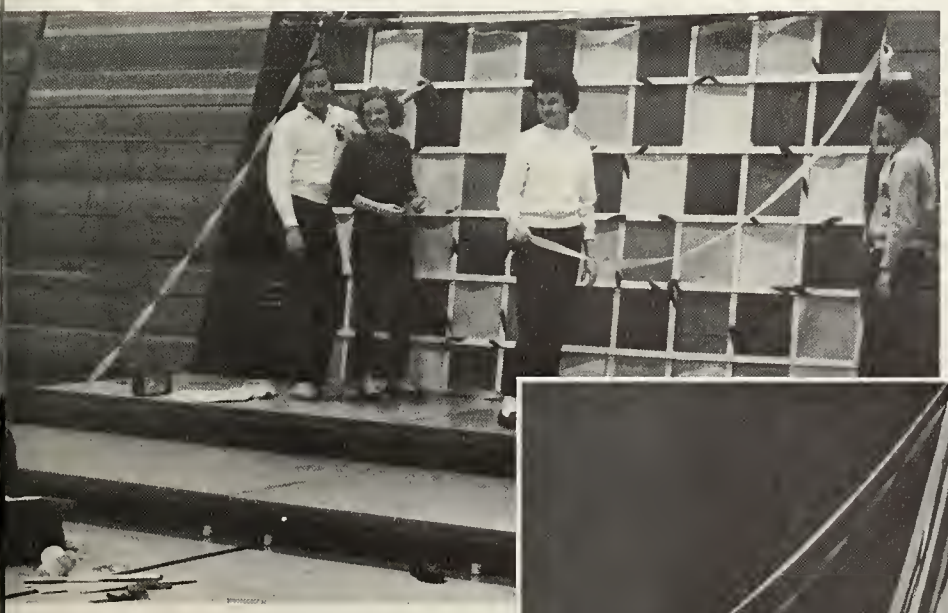
Record table at the Hallowe'en Party farms the center of activity. Dennis Hageman searches for a good record for Announcer Bob Williams, while Steve Rapier spins the discs.

Winners of the costume competition are Norma Osting and Jo Shumaker as Wee Willie Winkies. Judy Wiechart sports her cartoon-decked costume.

Not the Mardi Gras in New Orleans, but a mass meeting of the guests at the dance.

Casper's Moon Masquerade: Casper (invisible, af caurse,) enjays a spooky spree at the Freshman Hallawe'en Dance, October 26. While Ozzie, the awl, gazes salemnly, the dance committee cavarts playfully in the graveyard: Greg Miller, Dave Weber, Lanna Grewe, Kay Neumeier, Mary Pathast, and Janice Maenter.



Dennis Kill, Scarlett Osting, Bonnie Nesbitt, and Sue Best interrupt their wark far a pase in getting the bandstand ready far "Harvest Maan," Thanksgiving Dance, sponsared by the seniors.

Nape, nat the traditianal May Day pale — but a group of seniars caught in the swirl af the gym's centerpiece attractian. Three guesses! Wha are they?

Bob Hiett and Carol Heitz are two reasons for the huge success of "Harvest Moon," senior-sponsored Thanksgiving Dance, held November 24.

Lined up before the magic doorway that led to an evening of fun are committee members: Jo Shumaker, Joe Bricker, Penny Sever, Doris Saum, James McCabe, Mary Meyers, Dennis Kill, and Karen Rahrig.

Thomas Mueller
"Mr. Crest"

To Thomas Mueller and Mary Lou Cramer, Seniors 206, goes the coveted distinction of
"Mr. and Miss Crest" of 1962.
Thomas set a new high with 31 subscriptions; Mary Lou, 15.

Mary Lou Cramer
"Miss Crest"

Lois Hageman and Michael McKowen, co-chairmen of the 1961 Spring Formal — Blue Hawaii — pause for a picture near a scenic spot at the dance.

Marjorie Schwinnen escorted by Howard Kill adds a note of grace near the bandstand at the "Blue Hawaii" Dance last spring. Marjorie was chairman for this division of the Dance.

Co-chairmen Diane Potthaff and Tom Mueller agree that "Blue Hawaii" will go down in the seniors' memary books as "One Enchonted Evening."

Chairmen of the altar committee pose with the evidence of their goad planning: Phil Bryan, Karen Rahrig, Pat Pohlman, and Paul Wiechart.

Moms and Dads who have added a wholesome chaperon "touch" to the many social affairs at St. John: Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Sever, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McKowen, "old-faithfuls" in party-sitting.

The "Nite Owls" have returned for many a repeat performance at SJH's dances.

"I could have danced all night . . ."

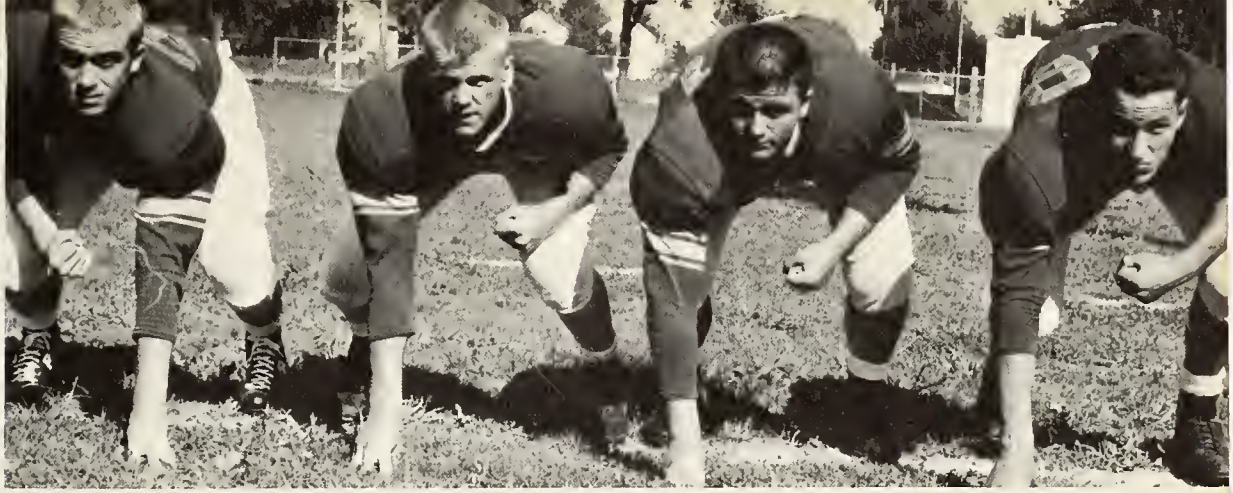
Power Behind the Jays

St. John's Athletic Department: Coach Robert Kurucz, Head Coach Ed Zalar, Athletic Director Father Kuhn and Coach Bob Arnzen make a sketch of the season's wins.



Linemen: Bill Brennan, Ron Baumgarte, Co-captoin Tim Drewyare, and Wayne Hatz contribute a strong defense to the Jays' team.

Tackle Bob Gordon, Center Gene Hickey, and Guard Dave Bracker comprise one-third of the team — "the biggest third."

Ed Hoehn cracks T-BIRD line for more yardage.

Ride 'em, T-BIRDS!

"Et tu, Brute!" It is said that even the SAINTS had their differences. But to think that L.C.C.'s Principal was the Jays most loyal fan far more than nineteen years!

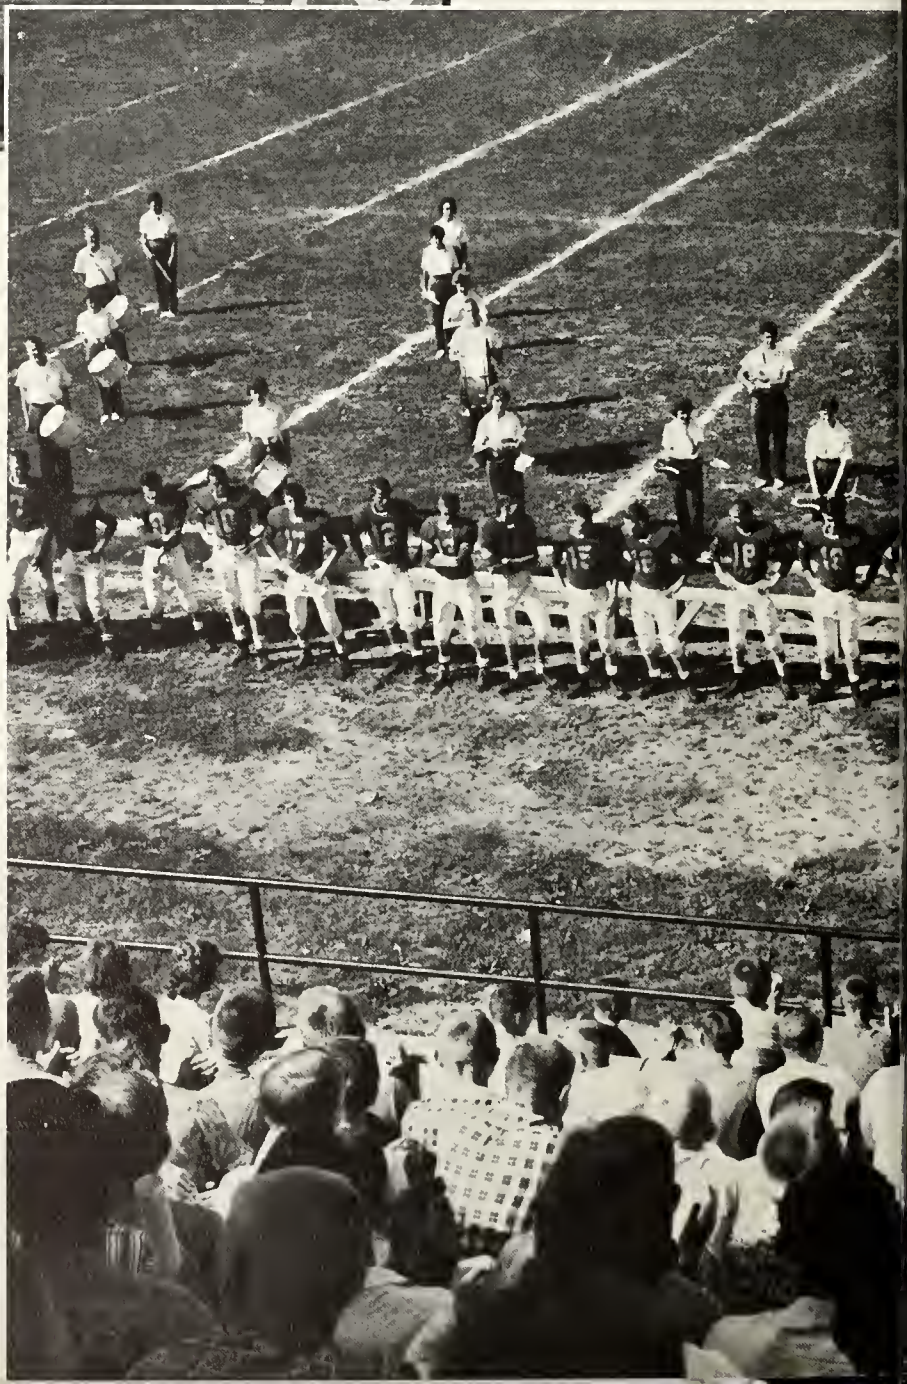
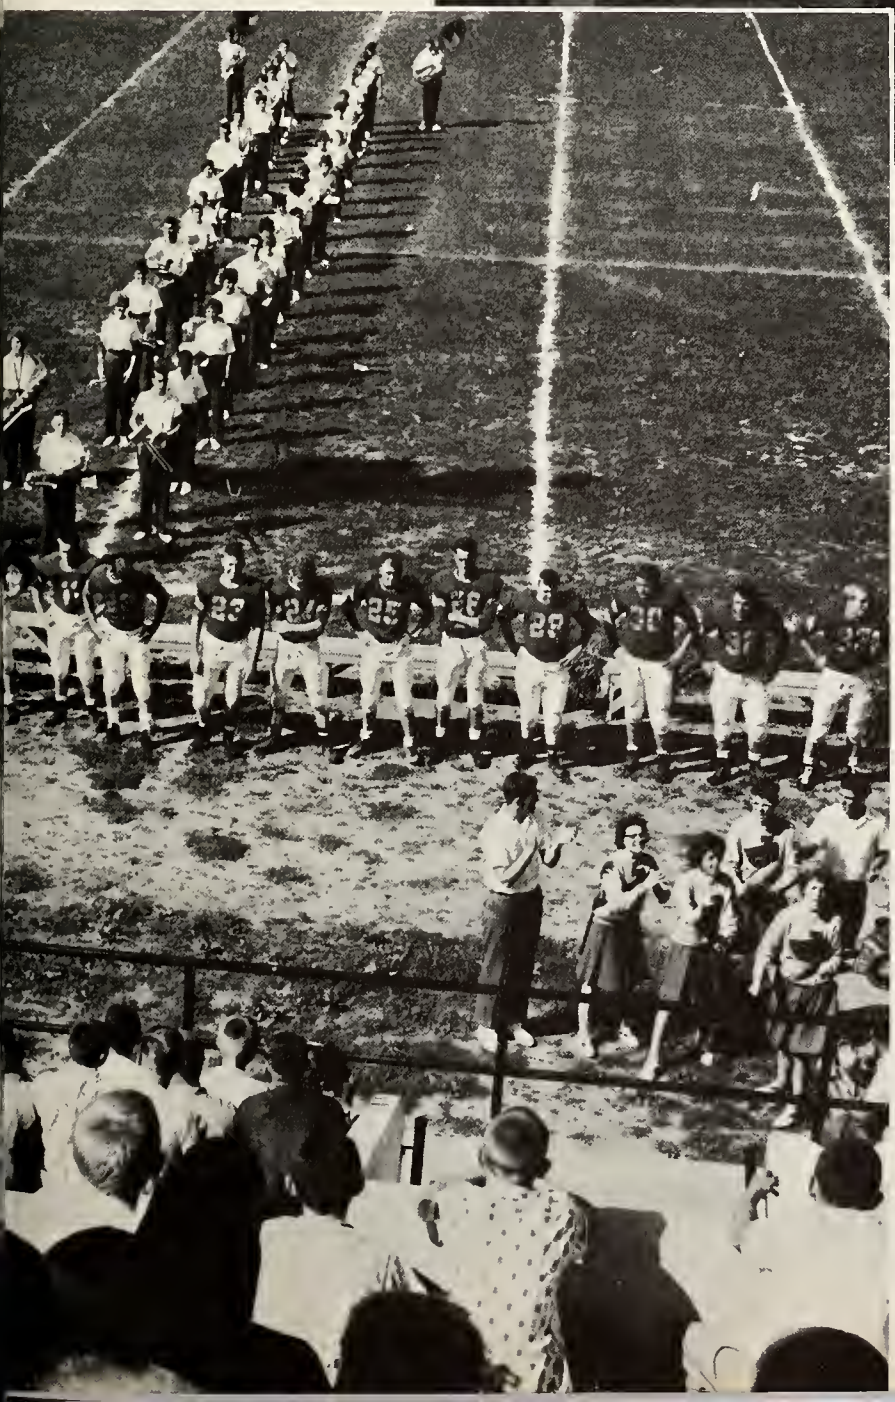
Blue Jays on the Ramble!

The Crest Staff presents the Sensational Six! These half-dozen cheerleaders go down in SJH's history as the victorious "Hockling Hawks" of the 1961 Football Season: Barbara Shenk, Rick Hanser, Genie Ricker, Bab Hiett, and Coralyn Burger. STANDING is the Cheer Queen responsible for the new "give" — Mary Lou Cramer.



Cooch Ed Zalor gives the fans a run-down on the chorus line-up. Principal Father Thomas Kuhn is all in favor of a winning season.



Footballrama catches the glamor of Color Day as the Jays opened the Grid Season with the traditional Pep Rally staged at the Delphos Recreational Field last September. LOWER FRONT: Blue Jay student boosters and faculty; FAR RIGHT: Cheerleaders in action; CHORUS LINE: Big, bad, brutal Blue Jays; FAR REAR: The Delphos St. John Marching Band.

Sophomore — Guard

Danny Grothaus — Sophomore Guard

"Two Bits, Four Bits, Six Bits, a Dollar; All for the cheerleaders, stand up and holler." Let's yell for Nadine Van Schoyck, Helen Hempfling, Lois Hageman, Marjorie Schwinnen, Jeanne Urbine, and Diane Potthoff.

Note the "bulldog" determination of the cheer queens. Can't blame them if the Jays fail to connect. Lined up for victory are Lois Hageman, Helen Hempfling, Diane Patthaff, Jeanne Urbine, Margie Schwinnen, and Nadine Van Schoyck.

In Memoriam

The Crest Staff pays tribute to Coach Richard Bechtel, a man whose spirit of teamwork and loyalty has been forever instilled in the hearts of those who attend St. John High. Mr. Bechtel, who passed away on January 1, 1962, has gone down in St. John's history as the coach who led the Blue Jays to the State Championship in '49.

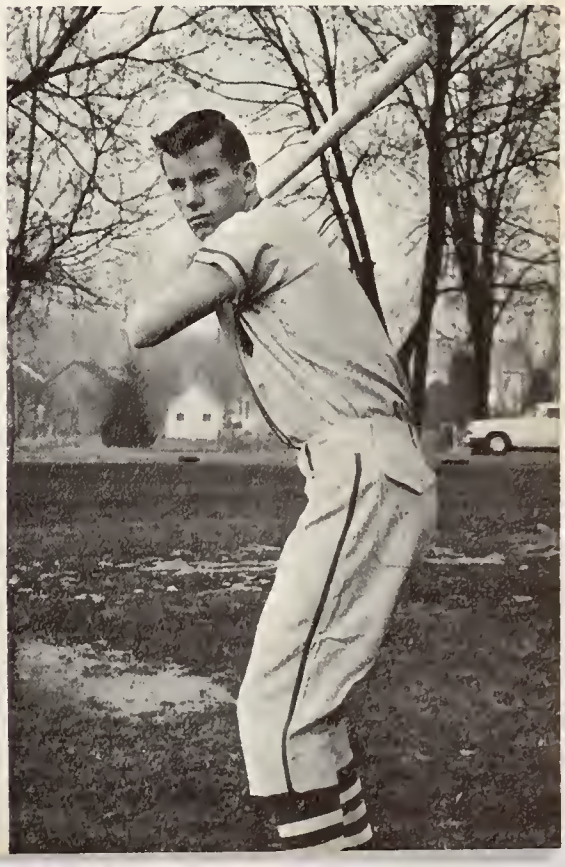
Sports Arena

Oops there, Jim, don't bump your head on the rafters!

Arf! Arf! You've got the right tree, hounds, but the wrong coon. He went dot owoy! "Mush, you Malemutes" Dove Leffers and Denny Kehres try a stuffed decoy. (Just how coonie can we get?)

There's a wicked gleam in the eye of yon batter-up. "Such men are dangerous!" Sock 'em, Jim!



"Moments to Remember"
